"With a provincial general election next June practically certain, the cabinet of the Ontario government is quietly preparing the planks for their campaign program and legislation for the next session of the house to improve their chances of being returned to power.

"Cabinet ministers are making speeches over a wide territory and are expected to be frequent visitors to Queens Park. All this tends to make a political undercurrent that will break into full force when the election date is announced.

"Some important pieces of legislation have been promised the people of Ontario by Premier Ferguson. These include old age pensions and the act to protect real estate dealers.

"Interest is centering around the real estate bill. Last year the 'blue

INSURGENTS AND TROOPS IN BATTLE IN MEXICO

Mexico City, Oct. 23.—Excelsior today printed a dispatch from Guadalajara saying that thirty insurgents, including two chieftains and one army officer and eight soldiers had been killed and two soldiers fatally wounded in a 13-hour combat at Autlan, state of Jalisco.

Federal Captain Ramos was notified that the group had been defeated there.

The soldiers fought gallantly until the commanding officer and eight of them were killed and two others fatally wounded. The insurgents then attacked the town. The battle raged for 18 hours until the insurgents were forced to withdraw, abandoning thirty dead. Other dispatches today said that six insurgents and three soldiers were killed in another battle at Huspala.

PROFESSIONAL SOLDIERS AND WAR

Lord Allenby told interviewers in New York last night that the Kellogg pact marks a definite advance towards world peace, and that the world must give up its militant methods if civilization is to endure.

Those are unusual words for a professional soldier.

The professional fighting man not only has been opposed, as a class, to preparing for war, but has, in the past, been a definite and potent cause of war.

With a show of pomp and power he has fed national vanities and inflamed nationalistic ambitions of conquest. He has diverted national funds from industrial purposes to military purposes. He has built up huge war machines that sooner or later had to be tried out against other war machines.

The philosophy of the professional fighting man has been the direct antithesis of the philosophy of the industrialist, whose prosperity must be founded in peace.

The professional soldier must find his fortunes in war. Therefore he looks and works for war.

Lord Allenby seems to be an exception.

THE KING OF SWAT STILL SWATS

Three home runs in the final game of the world baseball series gave the champion pennant to the New York Yankees and even greater lustre to the dazzling name of the great Babe Ruth.

It is performances such as Ruth's yesterday that explain the tremendous hold baseball has taken upon the imagination of the American people. It must have been a thrillingly dramatic moment when Ruth walked out there in the eighth inning amid the jeers of the crowd which fancied he had gained an unfair decision on an earlier play, and knocked out those three runs that tied his own record and won the series.

The masses in every country demand their drama and excitement. Babe Ruth gives the American masses the drama they require. It is not his great hitting ability that makes him the "King of Swat," but his ability to hit when the situation has reached a tense point.

He is not only a great baseball player, but a great actor as well.

The King of Swat still swats—and swats at the right time.

AS THE SPARTANS TAUGHT

Clinton S. Carnes is charged in Atlanta with having misappropriated nearly a million dollars of home mission board funds, of which he had charge. The charges cover a period of ten years.

Carnes was paid a salary of $4400 per year. He maintained his family in a $50,000 home, kept four automobiles and a "retinue of servants," police recall.

The mission funds were disappearing year after year, and it was evident that a man could not put on such a showing on $4400 per year. Yet there was no word of suspicion until Carnes disappeared, chased out, he says, by blackmailers who knew of his former prison record.

The point is a paradox. Had Carnes lived modestly, as befits a family man with that salary, suspicion would probably have fallen on him years ago, had the defalcations been revealed. But a prosperous front allayed the very suspicion it should logically have aroused.

The moral is, if you want to steal, do it handsomely.

NEWFOUNDLAND VOTES OCT. 29

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 20.—A feature of the nominations held yesterday for the general election which will take place in Newfoundland on Monday, October 29, was the number of independents who announced their intention of seeking election. In eight of the 37 districts there will be three-cornered fights, while in another district an independent is unopposed by the government and has its support. Three districts will return two men each, making the new house one of forty members.

Results of the nominations were not available today from all the districts. Premier F. C. Alderdice was nominated in St. John's East, together with Captain G. E. Ryan. Opposing them were Ernest Churchill and E. Murphy, opposition.

Sir Richard Squires, leader of the opposition, Liberal party, was nominated in the Humber district.

Women voters will number practically the same as men, women over 25 having been given the vote by the last government.

SALVATION ARMY HARVEST THANKSGIVING TAG DAY

The extent of this work depends largely upon your generosity. Our objective is Eighty Dollars which we feel confident you will gladly help us with after the beautiful Harvest which has been given us this year. Kindly allow the Taggers to wait upon you.

Assuring you of our appreciation of your past help, I remain,

SMALLPOX AT NANTON

Nanton, Oct. 22.—A special meeting of the board of health was held Sunday to consider what action will be taken by the board following the breaking out of two cases of smallpox in the town. It was decided to notify the provincial department of health, and await their advice.

The first case to develop was that of George Loree, who was quarantined here three weeks ago. Mr. Loree had come home from Turner Valley on sick leave, and his quarantine resulted. The only other case so far is that of W. A. Denoon, who has been ailing for several days, and his case was pronounced smallpox on Saturday.

NOVEMBER ROD AND GUN

Replete with a fine collection of well illustrated stories, the November number of Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News is one of the most attractive issues of the national sporting magazine that has appeared on the news-stands.

All fields of outdoor sport and recreation are covered in interesting stories and articles by such well known outdoor writers as Brandy Castle Dale, A. Bryan Williams, Robert James and J. W. Winans. In addition to these the Guns and Ammunition department, edited by C. S. Landis, Outdoor Talk by W. C. M. Lyle and Fishing Notes by G. P. Stoen are especially good this month.

The Canadian Silver Fox News

section, edited by J. R. Barr, also contains a selection of very timely and informative material.

Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News is published monthly by W. J. Taylor Limited, Woodstock, Ontario.

NAVY LEAGUE AIDS MERCHANT MARINES — WIDOWS AND ORPHANS DO NOT RECEIVE ANY GOVERNMENT ASSISTANCE

The Rev. Fred Cooke, organizing secretary of the Navy League, who has been in Macleod collecting subscriptions for Canada's national magazine of yachting and shipping and donations to the Navy League of Canada, wishes to thank the citizens for their assistance, $41.00, being raised in the town for the Alberta division.

The Navy League assists the widows and orphans of the men of the Merchant Marine, since they do not receive assistance from the government. The league also looks after the sailors' homes and insulates in all the larger Canadian ports and attends to the welfare of these men while they are ashore. In addition to this, the league tries to young men and boys, helping to make better Canadian citizens of them.

The Alberta Division is required to raise $3,000, as its share of the $20,000 budget of the Navy League. It is hoped that this amount will be raised as quickly as possible with the combined assistance of the people throughout the province.

The Sailor Magazine is fast becoming one of the leading Canadian magazines and it should be in every home and organization. Subscriptions and donations to the Navy League can be sent to V. J. Ward Esq., Secretary, 639-5th Ave. W., Calgary, Alta.

GORDON McLEOD, LONDON STAR, IN "MISS ELIZABETH'S PRISONER"

To westerners there is a particular interest in the fact that the sensational young London star, Gordon McLeod, is now in this part of the Dominion at the head of his own picked all-star company.

It was, to a certain degree, the west which made him a star. Before last season, he had reached the heights in London but he had never been seen in Canada except as Sir John Martin-Harvey's leading man. Last year, Sir John took suddenly ill and Mr. McLeod stepped into the role on an hour's notice. He played the actor-knight's part from Toronto to the Pacific coast. Western audiences greeted him as enthusiastically as they would have welcomed Sir John himself and the young actor, it was obvious to everyone, was made.

Now he is back and, naturally, he is paying more attention to his engagements in western cities than to any other section of his tour. Aside from his 1927 triumphs here, there is the added fact that he himself is a former westerner for, as a youth, he came out to Indian Head and took up the questions of chores and harvesting there before returning to go on the stage.

The play in which he appears is "Miss Elizabeth's Prisoner," a celebrated British costume comedy, intense and gripping as a whole but with a series of hilarious scenes as well, much romance and some excellent sword-play for good measure.

He will be in Medicine Hat, Lethbridge and Calgary in the order named. His Lethbridge engagement at the Majestic has been arranged for Friday and Saturday, Nov. 2 and 3 and he appears in Calgary the first half of the following week.

WEDDING BELLS

CHARLTON—MACLEOD

One of the prettiest weddings witnessed in Macleod for many a day was celebrated in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, October 17th at 4 o'clock, when Gladys MacLeod and Ernest Charlton were united in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of the late Capt. Murdoch MacLeod and Mrs. MacLeod, the latter now Mrs. (Dr.) M. E. Genge, Charlottetown, P. E. I. The groom is the eldest son of the late William Charlton and Mrs. Charlton, Macleod, Alberta. Miss MacLeod has been on the staff of the Macleod General Hospital for a number of years and Mr. Charlton came to Macleod from Toronto when he was a very small boy and has grown up in Macleod. The young couple are thus very well known and are very popular. The evidence of their popularity was shown last Wednesday afternoon, by the large crowd who were present to witness the ceremony, the church being crowded and a large number standing round the door.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with white chrysanthemums, ferns and pot plants, also a color scheme of streamers of white and green which made a very pretty effect. A large wedding bell hung under a canopy of streamers in front of the choir, under which the bride couple stood during the ceremony.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her step-brother, E. R. H. Genge of Charlottetown, who gave her away in marriage. The bride was supported by Miss Olive Lambert as maid of honor and Miss Ina Louise MacDougall was bridesmaid. David A. Strother acted as groomsmen. The ushers were Frank Walshe and James Lambert. As the bridal party entered the church Mrs. Cutler played the Melody in F by Rubinstein, and during the signing of the register Miss Cathleen Mercer sang very sweetly, "At Dawning, I Love You," by Cadman.

The bride's dress was a lovely creation of white georgette and tulle, with flowing veil and orange blossom, she carried a beautiful bouquet of lilies of the valley and white roses. The maid of honor Miss Lambert wore a dress of pearl georgette and Miss MacDougall's dress was of green georgette. Both maid of honor and bridesmaid carried Bo-peep Crooks decorated with bows of white ribbons and carnations. Altogether the wedding ensemble made a lovely scene in the church and will long be remembered by all who witnessed the ceremony.

A reception was held for the bridal party at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Charlton. The invited guests numbered about 30. The happy couple left immediately after the reception by motor to Calgary, Banff and Lake Louise for the honeymoon. They will be at home to their friends after October 30th at their new home on 22nd Street. The good wishes of a large circle of friends goes with them for a long and happy life.

HUNTER—SANDERS

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Andrew's Manse, Lethbridge, on Wednesday, October 17, when the Rev. W. E. Kelly, M. A., B. D., united in marriage James Hunter with Elizabeth Sanders. The bride, who was given away in marriage by her father, Mr. Arthur Sanders, was dressed in a white crepe-back satin dress with hat to match and carried a bouquet of fern and carnations. Miss Grace Bondor, the bridesmaid, was dressed in blue crepe de chene with a large picture hat to match and carried a bouquet of carnations. Mr. John Hunter acted as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter will make their home in Macleod.

HUNTER—ANGELL

The marriage took place on Tuesday, October 16, at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Manse, Lethbridge, of Mr. William Hunter of Macleod and Miss Edith Mary Angell, also of Macleod. The ceremony took place in the presence of immediate relatives of the families and was performed by Rev. W. E. Kelly, M. A., B. D.

After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter will take up residence on their farm at Macleod.

PORTER—ELGIN

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the United Church Manse, on Saturday evening, October 20, when Aldus John Porter and Lena May Elgin were united in marriage by Rev. J. F. Knight, M. A., B. D. The witnesses were Emily Winnifred Lane and Roy Luther Bratton. All the charm, vivacity and hopefulness of youth illumined the occasion, and the young couple will take up the struggle of life together in the home of the groom at Spring Point. The bride, especially, was well and favorably known in Macleod having lived most of her life in Spring Point and being a frequent visitor as well as student in Macleod.

Glenwood News

On Monday morning our local blacksmith, W. C. Lybbert, was setting a tire on a wagon wheel, when a severe pain struck him in the back and prostrated him. He has been confined to his home since.

Bert Quilton has brought his cattle home from the summer pasture.

Quite a number of the younger people attended the dance at the Hartley School on Friday night, while others were attracted to the Riverside Pavilion for their entertainment.

The Glenwood School Board have decided to lay maple flooring in the old school house. They expect to do this while the teachers are attending convention at Lethbridge, just previous to Thanksgiving Day.

A number of local people attended the Frederick White illustrated lecture at Cardston Saturday night. This was a very instructive and interesting lecture on India. The entertainment was sponsored by the Cardston Board of Trade.

The main street of Glenwood has been considerably improved recently by filling in the large holes at the east end.

Chester Asplund, the manager of the irrigation project, informs us that the water will be left in the ditches until the end of October, unless bad weather compels him to turn it out before then.

Wheat Pool members received the final payment this week on their 1927 crops.

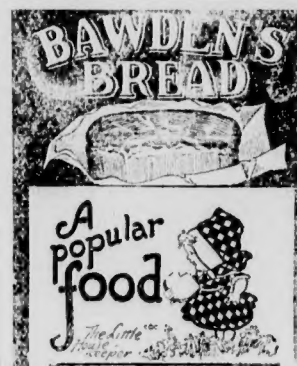

THE OPENING OF THE MAIN HIGHWAY FROM THE INTERNATIONAL BOUNDARY TO EDMONTON

The big celebration to be held on Wednesday, October 31st, in connection with the completion of the grading and gravelling of the Blue Trail between the International Boundary and Edmonton will be one of the biggest and most important events that has taken place in Macleod since the great Jubilee celebration.

The committees are working hard to make the event a great success. At a combined meeting on Tuesday evening the Invitation Committee reported that Lieutenant Governor Elbert, Premier Brownlee, O. L. MacPherson, Minister of Public Works, C. A. Davidson, Commissioner of Highways, G. G. Cooke, M. P.; and W. H. Shield, M. L. A., had all accepted the invitation to be present. The mayors of the various cities and towns along the route of the highway have all been invited, and many of them are expected to be present.

The program of the celebration is: The cars leave the Queens Hotel at 3 p. m., drive out to the Kestney Bridge, where a blue ribbon will be stretched across the road, and after a short ceremony the Lieutenant Governor and the Premier will cut the ribbon and declare the Highway open.

The company will then return to Macleod where a banquet will be held in the Elks' Hall at 5:30 p. m. After the banquet addresses will be delivered by the visitors, interspersed with musical selections. The banquet will be presided over by Mayor J. W. McDonald, K. C., and will be open to the public, also to the members of the Board of Trade and the Automobile Association. Any person wishing to be present is almost over, but there is still the business of collecting. Wholesalers expect their money now and we must collect what you owe us in order to pay what we owe them. And it will take every cent you pay us to pay them. Let us strive together to hasten the process of squaring up all around.

And when you have paid your account just try us on a cash and carry basis and let us demonstrate to you that we not only give you a credit service when you sorely need it, but have everything the chain store can offer you when you can pay cash.

Don't spend your cash with the Chain Store and get your accommodation when you require it from the service store. Don't do that. Give the Service Store an even break. Here is your friend in need.

Amongst those who have already signified their intention of coming are Lieutenant Governor Egbert and Premier Brownlee.

The "Brotherhood" meeting on Tuesday evening was all that was ever anticipated. Good lunch quickly served and heartily enjoyed all prepared the way for Dr. Brayton's delightfully instructive paper on "Medicine and the Art of Healing." The terms were translated and interpreted for the plain English of the audience and the enthusiasm and appreciation manifested must have made the speaker feel the attitude of his audience. The chairman was elected by an ancient Anglo-Saxon method of election and Mayor MacDonald narrowly escaped the appointment into which Mr.

Andrews fell. Good spirit is the fellowship spirit.

Knight, her subject being child welfare and training. It was a very thoughtful and instructive address and was listened to with great attention. Mrs. Jones then favored the gathering with a vocal solo, which was heartily enjoyed. Miss Anna Fansett gave a well executed piano solo and little Doris Russell delighted the company with a recitation which was very clearly given. The usual refreshments

Doney and Dr. Fansett on Friday last conducted an efficiency fire alarm test at Macleod public school, and in which every room was vacated in 40 seconds from the sounding of the alarm, which speaks well for Principal Leisner's efforts in inculcating the fire drill amongst the pupils.

Prairie fire destroyed the pasture on about eight thousand acres on the Blood Indian Reservation on Saturday last. Serp. J. A. Webb, of the R. C. M. Police, and three helpers proceeded to the reserve and managed to hold the fire in check so that no serious damage was done and no stock was lost. The scene of the conflagration started a few miles east of the old agency buildings and stretched between there and the St. Mary's river.

In connection with the celebration to be held at Macleod on October 31 on completion of the travelling of the Blue Trail from the international boundary to Edmonton, the invitation committee received a telegram on Thursday night of last week from His Honor Lieutenant Governor Egbert stating that he would be pleased to be present on that occasion. Arrangements will go ahead for that
